- v. 9243 Tesoro Lane, #201, Fiddlers Creek, Naples, Florida;

(a through v hereinafter collectively referred to as the "Subject Property").

2. The aforementioned Subject Property is to be seized pursuant to this Order of Forfeiture/Preliminary Order of Forfeiture as to Specific Property and is to be held thereafter by the United States Marshals Service (or its designee) in its secure custody and control. Any and all financial institutions shall turn over property ordered forfeited to and as directed by the United States Marshals Service.

3. Pursuant to Rule 32.2(b)(3) of the Federal Rules of Criminal Procedure, this Order of Forfeiture is final against the defendant, is part of the sentence of the defendant, and shall be included in the judgment of conviction therewith, and is hereby deemed in full satisfaction of the Money Judgment.

4. Pursuant to 21 U.S.C. § 853(n)(1), the United States Marshals Service forthwith shall publish, at least once for three successive weeks in a newspaper of general circulation, notice of this Order, notice of the Government's intent to dispose of the Subject Property in such manner as the Attorney General may direct, and notice that any person, other than the defendant, having or claiming a legal interest in the above-listed Specific Property must file a petition with the Court within thirty (30) days of the final publication of notice or of receipt of actual notice, whichever is earlier. This notice shall state that the petition shall be for a hearing to adjudicate the validity of the petitioner's alleged interest in the Subject Property, shall be signed by the petitioner under penalty of perjury, and shall set forth the nature and extent of the petitioner's right, title, or interest in the Subject Property and any additional facts supporting the petitioner's claim and the relief sought.

5. Pursuant to Rule G(4)(a) of the Supplemental Rules for Certain Admiralty and Maritime Claims and Asset Forfeiture Actions, the United States is permitted to publish forfeiture notices on the government internet site, www.forfeiture.gov. This site incorporates the forfeiture notices that have been traditionally published in newspapers. The United States forthwith shall publish the internet ad for at least 30 consecutive days. Any person, other than the defendant(s) in this case, claiming interest in the Subject Property must file a Petition within 60 days from the first day of publication of the Notice on this official government internet web site, or no later than thirty-five (35) days from the mailing of actual notice, whichever is earlier, pursuant to Rule G(5) of the Supplemental Rules for Admiralty or Maritime Claims and Asset Forfeiture Actions. The petition shall be signed by the petitioner under penalty of perjury and shall set forth the nature and extent of the petitioner's right, title or interest in the Subject Property, the time and circumstances of the petitioner's acquisition of the right, title and interest in the Subject Property and any additional facts supporting the petitioner's claim and the relief sought, pursuant to 21 U.S.C. § 853(n).

6. The United States may also, to the extent practicable, provide direct written notice to any person known to have an alleged interest in the Subject Property, which is the subject of this Order of Forfeiture, as a substitute for published notice as to those persons so notified.

7. Upon adjudication of all third-party interests, this Court will enter a Final Order of Forfeiture pursuant to 21 U.S.C. § 853(n), in which all interests will be addressed.

8. The Court shall retain jurisdiction to enforce this Order, and to amend it as necessary, pursuant to Fed. R. Crim. P. 32.2(e).

9. Pursuant to Rule 32.2(b)(3) of the Federal Rules of Criminal Procedure, upon entry of this Preliminary Order of Forfeiture the United States Attorney's Office is authorized to conduct any discovery needed to identify, locate or dispose of the property, including depositions, interrogatories, requests for production of documents and subpoenas, pursuant to Rule 45 of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure.

10. The Clerk of the Court shall forward four certified copies of this Order to Assistant United States Attorney, Sharon Cohen Levin, One St. Andrew's Plaza, New York, New York 10007.

Dated: New York, New York
March 5, 2008

SO ORDERED
